

Critical praise for

Bear's Den's

So that you might hear me

CBS THIS MORNING
SATURDAY SESSIONS

"Laurel Wreath" WATCH HERE

"Agape" WATCH HERE

"Hiding Bottles" WATCH HERE

Paste WATCH SESSION HERE

"EMERGING ARTISTS SPOTLIGHT"

"So that you might hear me continues the band's rock trajectory while staying true to its folk roots. Bear's Den effortlessly blends acoustic sounds with modern synthesizers on many of its tracks, such as 'Laurel Wreath' and 'Crow,' giving the album a modern but deeply emotional feel." READ HERE

billboard

"Bear's Den is one of those bands that is like your favorite sweatshirt, you slip it on whenever and it makes you feel warm and at home. Doesn't really matter the time of day / year / where you are, home is home."

MUSIC BAE BLE

Album cover

"Bear's Den's music offers some of the most profound lyrics in the modern canon."

ATWOOD
MAGAZINE

"...it is obvious from these new singles from the group that their sound is evolving but keeping what has magnificently worked for the band."

THE WILD HONEY PIE

"There's no avoiding falling for each and every one of Bear's Den's songs, or so we've learned since that day, so long ago, when we first found ourselves inextricably in love with early song 'Elysium.'"

 I Heart Moosiq

FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT CARLA SACKS, CAMI OPERE OR LOUIS D'ADAMIO AT SACKS & CO., 212.741.1000, CARLA@SACKSCO.COM, CAMI.OPERE@SACKSCO.COM OR LOUIS.DADAMIO@SACKSCO.COM.