We want to give some special recognition to Yan Westerlund, the fifth Mipso, our brother on the road and partner in bringing these songs to life. His personality is all over this record. Thanks also to Shane Leonard, a good friend who's overflowing with musical ideas and who improves any project he touches. A special thank you to Gary Paczosa for lending his time and wisdom every time we needed him. Sandro Perri was a thoughtful and kind mediator and just the mad scientist we needed, and Mark Goodell, where would we be without your loving ears? There are only four people on the cover, but it wouldn't be the same record without all of y'all.
